The world-class facilities include two championship golf courses, which are both stunning and challenging to golfers of all skill levels. The Magnolia, which has recently been renovated, is a "traditional masterpiece" designed by Gene Hamm, and has played host to the PGA Tour Qualifying School, the LPGA's 's Pinewild Championship in 1995, as well US Open Qualifying. The Holly, Gary Player Signature Course, is fast becoming an area favorite, due to its panoramic beauty, "risk reward" layout, and some of the best greens in the Sandhills. The Holly has played host to many USGA Qualifying events, as well as Carolinas PGA Championships.

The Azalea course is a nine-hole par 3 course, which includes some of the more scenic holes on property. The remaining holes consist of three practice holes, which make up part of the world-class practice facility.
